SUMMER 2017

Discussion Selections

JUNE 1

The Little Paris Bookshop
by Nina George

Jean Perdu is the owner of the Literary Apothecary, a floating bookshop. When a new tenant in his building sets in motion events that force Jean to re-evaluate his past, he finds himself floating off down the rivers of France in search of lost love, new love, and friends he didn't know he needed.

JULY 6

The Japanese Lover
by Isabel Allende

Irina is a young immigrant with a troubled past who works at an assisted living home where she meets Alma, a Holocaust survivor who decades earlier, fell in love with Ichi, a survivor of the Japanese internment camp. Despite man's inhumanity, love, art and beauty can exist, as evidenced in this beautiful love story.

AUGUST 3

The Golden Son
by Shilpi Somaya Gowda

The first of his family to go to college, Anil leaves his tiny Indian village to begin a medical residency at one of the best hospitals in America. When his father dies, Anil becomes the head of the household, but he is uncertain that he has the wisdom and courage required to take on the role.
